

The Life of a Tomato

A seed is planted.

Give it a little water and warmth.

A seedling needs bright light to grow.

Plant it outside.

Pollinators help our plant mature.

The fruit holds the seeds for the next generation of plants.

Harvest time.

Pollinated flowers become fruit.